Recovery Dharma		https://recoverydharma.org/ Recovery Dharma is a peer-led movement and community that is unified by our trust in the potential of each of us to recover and find freedom from the suffering of addiction. We believe that the traditional Buddhist teachings, often referred to as the Dharma, offer a powerful approach to healing from addiction and living a life of true freedom.
Refuge Recovery		https://www.refugerecovery.org/ For both chemical and behavioral disorders/addictions. Refuge Recovery is a practice, a process, a set of tools, a treatment, and a path to healing addiction and the suffering caused by addiction.
Buddhist Recovery Network		https://www.buddhistrecovery.org/ The Buddhist Recovery Network promotes the use of Buddhist teachings and practices to help people recover from the suffering caused by addictive behaviors and is open to people of all backgrounds, and respectful of all recovery paths.

Northwest Buddhist Recovery		https://northwestdharma.org/refrec/ NWDA is a community-based effort offered freely to anyone interested in learning more about Buddhism in the Northwest. Please consider supporting our work, which depends on the generosity people like you. You can also contact us here about volunteering or supporting NWDA.
